Survey--Street Survey--Udipi Municipality--(South Kanara) District)--Completion of field work--Appointment of a special Dy. Tahsildar for final check--Sanction--Requested.

The Range Officer, Survey and Land Records Coimbatore reports that the survey of the streets in the Udipi Municipality is complete and that a special officer for a period of 45 days has to be appointed for final check of demarcation to see that the interests of the Municipality and the Government are safeguarded.

The Commissioner of the Udipi Municipality has been asked to obtain and send a copy of the council resolution agreeing to pay the proportionate cost of the establishment.

I therefore request that the appointment of a Special Deputy Tahsildar for a period of 45 days for the above work may be sanctioned early.

Copy to the Officer-in-charge Survey and Land Records, Coimbatore for information.

To A.S

With reference to A.S's orders extracted above, it is submitted that the file (which is closed and put up at (A)) was received back from Departments on 16-4-52. Orders for the issue of the draft order in that file, were passed on 18-4-52. The draft order was put in the issue tray by me on 19-4-52 — please see 'A' at top of p 3 of (A) — The telephone clerk Srimathi I. Joseph, appears to have sent it again to L.A Deptt by mistake instead of giving it for typing
